IMPORTANT NOTES

Some vendors take cash only. Royal Bank ATMs are available at the Lakeside Mall in Porters Lake, and in Musquodoboit Harbour.

Take special note of the hours. Each vendor is free to set their own hours and days of operation—some are closed Friday.

Many of the vendors are working out of their homes so please be respectful of their property. Park thoughtfully, and wipe any muddy shoes—they will appreciate it.

1. Ataraxy Farm

After returning from Bosnia, Blair was diagnosed with service-related PTSD. Kim left her career, helped to initiate their therapy farm and is now on a journey to help many others by opening their farm to the public. Each goats' milk soap is crafted as a symbol of mental health awareness, made with love and compassion. With bars for face, body, shaving and shampoo, goats' milk products provide many benefits to both skin and hair.

33 Manetail Lane, Lawrencetown

Fri 10-2, Sat 10-2, Sun 10-2

2. David Amos Woodworks

I create unique products for home living out of responsibly-harvested urban and rural salvaged wood. While some of my products are the same in design, each piece is a one-of-a-kind.

272 Leslie Road, East Lawrencetown

3. Kinap Recreation Centre

Enjoy a homemade bowl of soup with a scone while looking over the waterfront of Porters Lake. We have a variety of shopping available of beautiful home crafted items, baking, and artwork, and face painting for the kids. Cash/E-transfer

181 Greenough Dr., West Porters Lake

Sat 9-4 and Sun 9-3

4. Seastar Pottery

I make functional pottery inspired by the sea. Much of my work reflects seascapes, wave movement and sometimes images of sea creatures. I like to use a lot of blues in my glazing but sometimes like to play with some brighter colours like purple and pinks. I make platters, mugs, tumblers, vases, yarn bowls, salad and soup bowls, shot glasses and more. My most recent work is inspired by the fog we get here in our community, white and grey with a soft wavy texture.

386 Causeway Rd, Seaforth

Fri 10-6, Sat 10-6, Sun 10-6
